[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING JOHN DOES' EX PARTE
APPLICATION

DENIED
AS MOOT

1 On July 18, 2012, the John Does whose "Doe numbers" appear on the caption page,
2 above, in the above-entitled actions ("Moving Parties") by and through counsel, made an
3 ex parte application that the Court stay all outstanding subpoena return dates pending
4 consideration of a noticed motion to quash, sever, and for a protective order.

5 Good cause being shown, the instant ex parte application is hereby GRANTED, as 6 follows:

7 (A) All return dates, and motion to quash deadlines, for subpoenas previously
8 authorized by the Courts of the Central District of California in this case, or in any related
9 case pending in this District, and issued by Malibu Media, are hereby stayed pending
10 further order of this Court.

11 (B) Counsel for plaintiff Malibu Media, LLC is directed to serve a copy of this
12 order on every ISP to whom it has issued a subpoena authorized by the Courts of this
13 District within 24 hours of the entry of this order.

14 (C) Counsel for the Moving Parties is directed to file a noticed motion to quash,
15 sever, and for a protective order, by _____.

DENIED

IT IS SO ORDERED.
