HISTORY SIZZLE TIMELINE

EXHIBIT C - 2

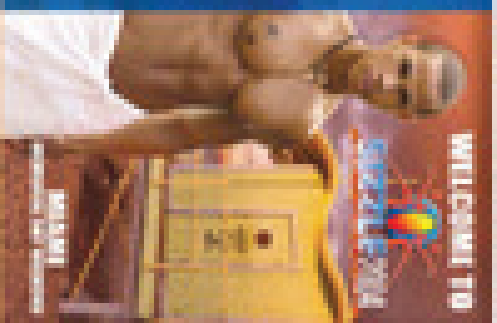

2000: The event that we know and love today was first called Sun On The Beach. The sun is still part of our name. Located on the beautiful beach.

2001: The first party called Sun On The Beach was held on the beautiful beach.

03

2002: During the Memorial Day weekend, party promoter Dwight Powell organized a 3-day party weekend that began on Friday and ended this Sunday. The Sun On The Beach name was dropped and changed to Sun Miami. This was a huge event that was attended mostly by locals in the South Florida area.

04

2004: After a successful 2003, word spread like wildfire about the very first parties in Miami during the Memorial Day Weekend. Organizers of the event then began to plan a 5-day party weekend with the Sheraton Beachfront being the host hotel. Ground transportation, air transportation and shuttle buses to all events were added to the lineup. Sun Miami became the first to offer four different types of VIP passes - tailored to the needs of all participants. These quickly became the most sought after commodities as participants tried to avoid the long lines of other party options. As a result of these marketing and promotional successes, Sizzle 2004 doubled in size from the previous year. Recognized by the Greater Miami Convention & Visitors Bureau, Sizzle Miami was on its way to becoming America's most anticipated and celebrated party event for men. This was the year that truly put Sizzle Miami on the map and because we agreed as the best planned and executed event for gay men nationwide.
