16 1. Pursuant to this Court’s Order (ECF 17), Plaintiff hereby files this status report.

17 2. On May 13, 2011, the Plaintiff served copies of this Court’s Order, a subpoena requesting 18 certain Internet subscriber information, as well as a letter explaining the requirements of the 19 subpoena and Court Order on Charter Communications, Clearwire Corporation, Comcast Cable,
20 Cox Communications, Earthlink, Insight Communications Company, Qwest Communications,
21 RCN Corporation, Time Warner d/b/a Road Runner, and Verizon Internet Services.

22 3. On May 17, 2011, Charter informed Plaintiff that it would require an additional 5 days
23 beyond the Court allotted 7 days to research its records and provide notice to its customers. The 24 Plaintiff, therefore, extended the due date for Charter’s subpoena response by an additional 5
25 days to allow for this additional notification time.

26 4. On or about June 6, 2011, Clearwire Corporation notified Plaintiff that it was unable to 27 locate any responsive records. As such, no subscriber notices were sent out.
28

1 5. On May 26, 2011, Comcast Communications contacted the undersigned in order to 2 request an extension of time for its subpoena response and indicated that notification had been
3 sent. The response extension was granted to accommodate for any delay in notification.

4 6. Cox Communications has indicated that, despite receiving this Court's Order before the 5 expiration of its subscriber data, it allowed the data to be overwritten and thus is unable to 6 identify its subscribers.

7 7. While Plaintiff has asked the remaining ISPs to verify the date that notification was 8 issued to each subscriber, the Plaintiff is still waiting to receive a response.

9 8. Currently, the Plaintiff has received subpoena responses from Charter, Insight, Qwest,
10 and Verizon.

11 9. Should the Plaintiff be able to verify the date the remaining ISPs sent out notification,
12 Plaintiff will file a supplemental report.
