MOTION TO EXTEND TIME FOR SERVICE OF COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, Liberty Media Holdings (hereinafter “Liberty” or the “Plaintiff”) files this Motion to Extend Time for Service of Complaint (hereinafter the “Motion”) in the above-captioned case through its counsel, Randazza Legal Group. Plaintiff seeks leave of this Court to extend the time in which it may effect service of the Complaint (Doc. # 1) upon Defendants John Does 1-3, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(m). Plaintiff seeks to extent the time in which it must serve the Defendants through and including October 20, 2011.

On April 22, 2011, Plaintiffs moved this Court to seek discovery from the Internet Service Providers (“ISP[’s]”) used by the Doe Defendants to infringe on Liberty’s copyrights. The undersigned has propounded discovery upon the ISP’s, receiving production from one of the ISP’s. Plaintiff is also verifying the data received in its production to ensure that the proper parties are named as defendants in this action, and intends to do so with respect to data still to be produced to the Plaintiff.

Accordingly, good cause is present for this Court to grant Plaintiff a brief extension to obtain the necessary information to proceed in its case and serve the defendants in this matter once they are properly identified.
