Bio

My name is Antonio, I live in Niagara Falls, NY and I am a Iraq vet who was in the Military for 8 years. After I got out of the Military I started my own business and started to settle down in my civilian life. Shortly after I got home I started to notice that something was not right with my country. People, places and things were not the same. The whole feeling of being an American has changed somehow. After talking to a close few friends I started to realize what we see on the surface is not what is really going on in the world. We are being kept in the dark about a lot of things that are going on in the world. Big Surprise Not But, what was I started to learn that I was in Iraq fighting for all the wrong reasons! Originally I went to Iraq to hunt down and find the terrorists, but who are the terrorist? Are they really the people that attacked us on 9/11, most people think yes, but what if I told you that everything that we were told and everything we were brought to believe was a lie! Not long after I got out and started to have these feeling I started to research was going on in the world. And what I found shocked me to the very core! After watching loose change which has woken me up to "things are not as they seem" I started to look further into things and found that 9/11 was really an inside job. People thought and some people still think I am crazy, but I don't care what people think. In today's world people always follow everyone else and everyone else follows the mainstream media! Well the mainstream media are owned by the very people who have planned the attack on our country! There is so much more that I can tell you, but this box is suppose to really be about me, and I don't push my views on anyone but if anyone is willing to learn the truth and want to fight for truth and or very way of life, get in touch with me and I will be happy to "wake you up to the truth" not by just telling you, but really showing you the truth. Let me show you and you can decide for yourself if your just going to stand by and let things happen or are you going to live to your responsibilities and fight for the

The TSA's mini 'Watch List'
Posted by Sherman Frederick

Some people say the first mistake was to create the Transportation Security Administration -- it doesn't really stop terrorism, makes flying an even more unpleasant experience, and created a bureaucracy that will live on far past the initial threat.

Not sure I'd agree with all of that. But I will say that we made a fundamental mistake allowing the TSA to unionize. That makes about as much sense as unionizing the military.

For example, we now come to find out that the TSA is keeping a mini "watch list" of its own. It's not a watch list of potential terrorists. It's a watch list of peeved travelers who since 2007 have scared TSA workers by showing anger such as punching walls or kicking equipment. It makes their workplace uncomfortable, don't you know.

And how many pushy travelers are on this list that started in 2007, which includes names, Social Security numbers, home addresses, etc.? Well, TSA says their database has records from about 240 incidents. About 30 incidents involve passengers or airport workers threatening screeners. The remaining 210 incidents involve screeners in conflict with other screeners.

Screeners threatening other screeners? If you think I'm making this up, then click here for the rest of this sad story.

I'd like to think that someone in government would have enough sense to put an end to this kind of crazy. But it won't happen on this administration's watch. This is a gang that can't even call the current threat for what it is -- radical Islamic terrorism. I doubt they'd have the backbone to put a stop to a TSA shop steward collecting names of irritated travelers.

At This time you should have a place you can even recommend a place away from the general population. This place you're evacuating to should have plenty more food, a safe supply of water and means to be self sufficient for as long as you need to. So plan your back! Stay Tuned to WNY Truthers for any Alert Status Change.
