Rosen: A letter to the Tea Partyers

By Mike Rosen

Posted: 09/23/2010 01:00:00 AM MDT

Dear Tea Partyers,

While I'm not a card-carrying member of your movement, I enthusiastically support and applaud it. My activism in the war of ideas takes the form of a radio show and a newspaper column. Yours, at the grassroots level, has been invaluable this election year.

After their victory in November 2008, Obamanistas and Democrats imagined they might rule for a thousand years. Not two years later, they are in disarray and despair. They grossly misread their electoral mandate and overreached. Their crusade to "transform America," as candidate Obama termed it, into a paradise-on-Earth of democratic socialism and world government has failed. You represent millions of Americans — including many who voted for Democrats in 2008 — who recognize this.

Now the task is, first, to block any further damage from leftists who have been in power for the past two years; and, second, to reverse and repeal policies and programs they've set in motion. Victory is at hand. It's essential that we don't let it slip away.

Democrats and media liberals have denigrated your movement from the beginning. Initially, they dismissed you as irrelevant and inconsequential. They've ridiculed you and denied your grassroots spontaneity and legitimacy. They've branded you an "Astroturf" movement, as if you've been recruited by secret manipulators. (Ironically, this is a tactic their side employs, such as ACORN paying people to show up at staged, public demonstrations.) As the size and impact of your movement has become undeniable, the left has shifted tactics. Now they're misrepresenting, defaming and demonizing you.

They're also instigating what they hope will be a civil war within the conservative ranks between Tea Partyers and the Republican "establishment" in order to divide and conquer. Don't fall into this trap. Although many Tea Partyers are registered Republicans, the movement itself is independent and not synonymous with the GOP. Nonetheless, the agendas of the two groups are overwhelmingly consistent, and the GOP will necessarily be the electoral vehicle in 2010 for the achievement of Tea Party goals. The overriding imperative that trumps any differences among those on the right is to defeat Democrats and regain legislative majorities locally and nationally.

Understandably, the Tea Partyers have been disappointed with GOP backsliding in recent years from the conservatism of Ronald Reagan. This has bred frustration and anger. Many traditional Republicans feel the same way. Electoral defeats in 2006 and 2008 have been a wake-up call. That, combined with Tea Party influence and the anti-Obama counter-revolution, has produced a conservative resurgence within the GOP. Liberal Republicans like Arlen Specter have been driven out of the party or defeated by conservatives in some primary races. Yes, some soft Republicans remain but not all states and congressional districts are receptive to conservatives. Recall that in 2006 and 2008, liberal Democrats were overjoyed to see their party's victorious, conservative "blue dogs" help them achieve a majority in Congress, a majority that couldn't have been won had they run liberals in those races.

The Tea Party movement isn't monolithic. It's made up of millions of different people united by various shades of a conservative vision. It includes political veterans tempered by experience and newcomers overflowing with idealistic enthusiasm. There's no shortage of principle and passion among Tea Partiers. But I urge some in your ranks to holster your pitchforks. Don't discard your principles or extinguish your passion, just channel it. America is a right-center nation, not an ultra-conservative one. Radical leftists like the MoveOn.org, Daily Kos, Huffington Post crowd pushed the Democratic Party to extremes that have led to its downfall. Let's not make that mistake on the right.

Remember the sage political advice of Joseph P. Kennedy, to his sons, Jack, Bobby and Teddy: "Don't get mad, get even." Conservatives will get even by winning this election.

Voter registration project a success

The LowCountry 9/12ers have been busy registering voters every Saturday at the Summerville Farmers Market. Coordinators Bonnie and Bob Meriam have done a great job, and we reached many new voters as well as people who moved within the state. Kendra from the Sign Station contributed a great sign pointing people to the table.

We also went to CSU on 9/23 from 11 to 2. Thanks to Barbara and Bill Bates for making the arrangements; the Reuers and Carol Emery for helping.

Let's oppose the DREAM ACT!!!

Subject: These Senators want re-election while voting amnesty today?

DREAM ACT AMNESTY VOTING STARTS TODAY

Could Go Either Way — Pro-Amnesty Forces Say They Will Win
Because They Will Outphone Us For The First Time

Please Phone 12 Senators Running For Re-Election

The first vote is set for 2:15 this afternoon.

Pro-amnesty zealots are predicting that a massive, last-minute phone bank effort by the website DailyKos and the SEIU unions will bury our anti-amnesty voices today. (See the boasts lower in this email.)

They claim that they have processed more than 60,000 pro-amnesty phone calls to Congress through their phone banks!

We need your phone calls, urging opposition to any amnesty for illegal aliens during this time of incredible unemployment. (See the targets I'm giving you below.)

NumbersUSA had grassroots activists in the Capitol yesterday visiting nearly every Senate office. In many offices, staffers said your phone calls are matching the pro-amnesty calls 50-50. But many more said we are losing 40-60 and by even more.

Friends, always in the past, Senators have faced an amnesty vote knowing that phone calls were running 80-20 and even 99-1 in our favor. It is part of the reason we have beaten every amnesty since 2000.

Please don't let yourself or your country down by failing to make a critical phone call today (and hopefully several of them).

CONGRESSIONAL SWITCHBOARD — 202-224-3121

It appears that the vote today will be very close. If the Senate Leadership succeeds in its first vote today, we seem likely to have a second vote on Wednesday. Senators are being lobbied furiously by the pro-amnesty forces. They and their staffs need to hear from you.

ACTION: Phone Senators who are asking voters in November to return them to Congress for another six years.

SEE THE LIST OF SENATORS BELOW.

We are asking our members in 16 other states to focus their phone calls on key swing-vote Senators in their region.

I am asking you, though, to concentrate on these Senators below who are up for re-election. Amazingly, most feel so confident (or arrogant) that they are willing to label themselves as sure votes for an amnesty.

I am listing Senators running for re-election who are either currently planning to vote FOR the DREAM Act amnesty or who are not at all reliable NO votes.

While many of these Senators may feel like a lost cause, we need them to feel the level of outrage at their lack of concern for unemployed Americans. If you can cause them to see how their pro-amnesty stance hurts their posturing as somebody trying to put the jobless back to work, they may work behind the scenes to press Senate Leadership to pull the amnesty before they have to vote.

When you phone, stress that:

- DREAM amnesty has zero enforcement. Illegal-alien teenagers are in their current predicament because their parents were allowed to illegally take jobs and then hold them. The DREAM amnesty would allow millions more parents to do the same in the future.
- Millions more illegal aliens will be enticed to come and take U.S. jobs once they see the way previous illegal aliens are rewarded by the DREAM amnesty.
- This new flow of illegal workers will further the suffering of 22 million unemployed Americans who want a job but can't find one.

- A vote for DREAM amnesty is a vote in favor of bringing in more illegal foreign workers and keeping millions of Americans jobless.
- Tell them that their amnesty stance is a strange one for a candidate asking voters to believe that he/she is representing the best interests of the state!

All the Republicans running for re-election appear to be strongly OPPOSED to the DREAM amnesty.

PRO-AMNESTY BLOG BOASTS ABOUT OVERWHELMING US IN THE PHONE ACTIVISM EFFORT

On the immigration law website called ILW.com today, we found this troubling boast:

Democratic activists across the country are banding together for the largest phone call campaign in pro-immigration history.

DailyKos, one of the most important progressive websites has joined forces with the Service Employees International Union, the most pro-immigration among the major unions, to phone bank the Senate switchboard into a jammed state.

We believe this will be the first time ever that the pro-immigration calls will out-number the anti-immigrationists. We congratulate both DailyKos and SEIU on this outstanding initiative and we urge our readers to participate, see here for how.

In the past, those Senators who wanted to weasel out of supporting immigration benefits legislation have pointed to the lop-sided numbers in phone calls for and against. The numbers often cited by such nervous Senators were 1-to-40, 1-to-70, and even 1-to-100 against the pro-side.

For the first time, these nervous nellys will have the kind of numbers they have demanded from pro-immigration advocates; the better phone ratios will provide political cover for YES votes on DREAM.

With grassroots pro-immigration supporters lighting up the phone-lines across the country, the spotlight is now on the Democratic leadership, especially President Obama and Majority Leader Reid to ensure that there are no Democratic defections on DREAM.

– From the ILW.com pro-amnesty website

Click here to read my new blog that I put up last night about the DREAM Act amnesty. It describes how this not only isn't an "enforcement-first amnesty" but is an "enforcement-never amnesty." If you need more talking points for your phone call, you'll find them in the blog.

IF YOU HAVE NEVER PHONED A SENATE OFFICE BEFORE, let me assure you that it can be very easy.

1. Just call and say hello to the staffer who answers.
2. Say you are calling in opposition to including the DREAM Act amnesty in the Defense bill.
3. You can give maybe one reason why you think DREAM is a bad idea.
4. Thank the staffer for listening and say good-bye.

Friends, it is most important that you get these Senators' staffers thinking about DREAM in terms of jobs and unemployed Americans.

The pro-amnesty forces want the Senators to feel that they aren't compassionate if they don't support the amnesty. But you want the staffers to think about compassion for the millions of Americans who are unemployed because illegal aliens are allowed to hold jobs.

PLEASE DON'T DELAY. MAKE YOUR PHONE CALLS NOW.

THANKS,

9/12ers register new voters at Farmers Market

The LowCountry 9/12, under the direction of Bonnie Meriam, has been registering voters every Saturday in September at the Summerville Farmers Market. Because the area has a large number of people moving here from "away," there has been a good response.

We have also been able to help some who changed their voter registration when they got South Carolina driver's licenses, but hadn't received their new card with a polling place yet.

"It's been a good program," Bonnie said. About 10 volunteers have helped with registration.

Gingrich on why the mosque is wrong

July 21, 2010

There should be no mosque near Ground Zero in New York so long as there are no churches or synagogues in Saudi Arabia. The time for double standards that allow Islamists to behave aggressively toward us while they demand our weakness and submission is over.

The proposed "Cordoba House" overlooking the World Trade Center site – where a group of jihadists killed over 3000 Americans and destroyed one of our most famous landmarks – is a test of the timidity, passivity and historic ignorance of American elites. For example, most of them don't understand that "Cordoba House" is a deliberately insulting term. It refers to Cordoba, Spain – the capital of Muslim conquerors who symbolized their victory over the Christian Spaniards by transforming a church there into the world's third-largest mosque complex.

Today, some of the Mosque's backers insist this term is being used to "symbolize interfaith cooperation" when, in fact, every Islamist in the world recognizes Cordoba as a symbol of Islamic conquest. It is a sign of their contempt for Americans and their confidence in our historic ignorance that they would deliberately insult us this way. Those Islamists and their apologists who argue for "religious toleration" are arrogantly dishonest. They ignore the fact that more than 100 mosques already exist in New York City. Meanwhile, there are no churches or synagogues in all of Saudi Arabia. In fact no Christian or Jew can even enter Mecca. And they lecture us about tolerance.

If the people behind the Cordoba House were serious about religious toleration, they would be imploring the Saudis, as fellow Muslims, to immediately open up Mecca to all and immediately announce their intention to allow non-Muslim houses of worship in the Kingdom. They should be asked by the news media if they would be willing to lead such a campaign.

We have not been able to rebuild the World Trade Center in nine years. Now we are being told a 13 story, $100 million mega-mosque will be built within a year overlooking the site of the most devastating surprise attack in American history.

Finally where is the money coming from? The people behind the Cordoba House refuse to reveal all their funding sources. America is experiencing an Islamist cultural-political offensive designed to undermine and destroy our civilization. Sadly, too many of our elites are the willing apologists for those who would destroy them if they could.

No mosque.

No self deception.

No surrender.

The time to take a stand is now – at this site on this issue.
