Subject: RE: Motion for Sanctions - First Time Videos, LLC v. Does

Gentlemen,

Our office never received a letter of representation or notice of appearance from you on these cases. I recommend you do that in the future. It would make matters clearer for everybody. Similar to the Jacob McCullough case, whereby you represented him part of the time and then you did not represent him at a later time, but never told us that you had stopped representing him, I did not know that you continued to represent these clients after the motion to quash. A letter of representation or a notice of appearance would have clarified that. Either way, it was inadvertent. It was not intentional, and I won't let it happen again.

Will your office accept service on behalf of these clients?

Thanks

Joe
